

Spelling list: Non-statutory words: homophones #1 (copy)

Homophones and other words that are often confused.

aisle                      The bride walked down the aisle of the church.

isle                        The Isle of Skye is in Scotland.

aloud                      Read the words aloud .

affect                      The government cuts will affect everyone.

effect                      The special effects are incredible.

altar                        There are candles on the altar .

alter                        I'm going to alter my hair style.

ascent                      We continued our ascent of the mountain.

assent                      He gave a strong nod of assent .

bridal                      Her bridal gown was spectacular.

bridle                      Bridle - timber split into thirds.

cereal                      Most children like cereal for breakfast.

serial                        This TV drama is a weekly serial .

compliment              A compliment can make you feel good.

complement              Her scarf complemented her outfit.