

Spelling list: Characters in Lord of the Flies

Lord of the Flies by William Golding is an allegorical novel that depicts the descent into savagery by a group of schoolboys stranded on a deserted island. As they struggle to establish order and survive, the boys innate human tendencies and power dynamics lead to chaos and tragedy. Golding's thought-provoking tale explores the fragility of civilisation and the darker aspects of human nature.

Ralph	Ralph becomes the elected leader of the boys and strives to maintain order and civilisation.
Jack	Jack initially serves as the leader of the choirboys and later descends into savagery.
Piggy	Piggy , often ridiculed for his physical appearance, provides intellectual and rational ideas.
Simon	Simon possesses a gentle and spiritual nature and seeks to understand the true nature of the beast.
Roger	Roger displays a sadistic and cruel side, embracing violence as the island's society deteriorates.
Sam	Sam and Eric are a pair of twins closely allied with Ralph.
Eric	Sam and Eric are a pair of twins closely allied with Ralph.
Samneric	Sam and Eric are inseparable twins who are known by the group as Samneric .
Maurice	Maurice is one of the older boys who initially follows the rules but later gives in to primal impulses.
Percival	Percival , one of the younger boys, experiences increasing fear and anxiety as the story progresses.
Henry	Henry represents innocence and is often absorbed in his own world of sandcastles and play.
Littluns	The littluns are a group of younger boys who often display fear and vulnerability.

