

Spelling list: Characters in The Woman in White

The Woman in White by Wilkie Collins is a Victorian-era mystery novel. Drawing master Walter Hartright becomes embroiled in a web of intrigue, deceit, and forbidden love as he encounters enigmatic figures, a woman in white, and uncovers dark secrets that threaten the lives and reputations of those involved.

Walter	Walter Hartright is the novel's protagonist and a drawing master who takes up a teaching position at Limmeridge House.
Hartright	Walter Hartright is the novel's protagonist and a drawing master who takes up a teaching position at Limmeridge House.
Frederick	Frederick Fairlie is a wealthy landowner known for his exaggerated politeness.
Fairlie	Frederick Fairlie is a wealthy landowner known for his exaggerated politeness.
Laura	Laura Fairlie, Mr. Fairlie's niece, is known for her kindness and beauty.
Marian	Marian Halcombe, Laura's half-sister, is known for her intelligence and resourcefulness.
Halcombe	Marian Halcombe , Laura's half-sister, is known for her intelligence and resourcefulness.
Anne	Anne Catherick, also known as 'The Woman in White', is a mysterious character with a penchant for wearing white.
Catherick	Anne Catherick , also known as 'The Woman in White', is a mysterious character with a penchant for wearing white.
Jane	Jane Catherick is Anne Catherick's mother and plays a role in the unfolding mysteries.
Vincent	Vincent Gilmore is a lawyer who represents the Fairlie family.
Gilmore	Vincent Gilmore is a lawyer who represents the Fairlie family.
	Sir Percival Glyde , Laura Fairlie's fiancé and later her husband, is known

Glyde for his charm and hidden motives.

Fosco Count Fosco is a close friend of Sir Percival Glyde.

Pesca Professor Pesca is a friend of Walter Hartright who helps him secure the teaching position and is later involved in the story's events.