

Spelling list: Essential Words for ESL Learners: Building Vocabulary for Everyday Communication

Master essential vocabulary for English as a second language (ESL) learner with our carefully curated list. Geared towards learners who are improving their English, each word is accompanied by an example sentence for context. Start learning English effectively today with our ESL-friendly vocabulary resources.

hello	Hello , how are you today?
goodbye	She waved goodbye as the train departed.
thank you	Thank you for your help with the project.
please	Could you please pass me the salt?
friend	I met my friend for coffee this morning.
family	Family gatherings are always special occasions.
home	I can't wait to go home and relax after work.
school	She enjoys going to school and learning new things.
work	He has been busy with work all week.
food	The food tasted delicious.
drink	Would you like something to drink with your meal?".
sleep	Getting enough sleep is important for good health.
happy	Her smile always makes me happy .
sad	He felt sad when he heard the news.
big	That's a big house with a spacious garden.
small	The puppy is small enough to fit in your hand.
hot	Be careful, the coffee is hot!
cold	There is a cold breeze today.

love                    They share a deep love for each other.

hate                    I hate when it rains on the weekends.