

Spelling list: Oxford Dictionary common misspellings 6

tattoo	He disliked his new tattoo .
tendency	Bias is a tendency to favour one side over another in an account of historical events.
therefore	I'm tired, therefore I'm going home.
threshold	He stepped over the threshold into the house hesitantly.
tomorrow	I'll call you again tomorrow .
tongue	My dog's tongue is always out of his mouth.
truly	Their wedding was a truly joyous occasion.
unforeseen	The concert is cancelled due to unforeseen circumstances.
unfortunately	Unfortunately we lost the game.
until	Wait here until I get back.
Weird	I heard a very weird noise in the night.
wherever	I hope he has fun wherever he ends up.
which	Which way shall we go?