

Spelling list: Key Stage 3: Science: haz - ves

hazard	That chemical is a hazard .
insect	A tick is a small biting insect .
laboratory	Platinum is chemically inert and so is useful in laboratory apparatus.
liquid	We're studying the differences between solids, liquids, and gases.
mammal	Platypuses are among the few egg-laying mammals.
method	When conducting an experiment, make sure you follow the method carefully.
nutrient	The tree needs nutrients from the soil to survive.
organism	Bacteria is a single celled organism .
oxygen	The earth's atmosphere is one-fifth oxygen .
particles	Subatomic particles are even smaller than atoms.
predator	Wasps are important predators.
pressure	The deeper you swim, the greater the water pressure .
reproduce	The human body is warm and moist, providing an ideal environment for bacteria to reproduce .
respire	All living things respire .
respiration	We are studying the differences between aerobic and anaerobic respiration .
solution	We made a simple solution of sugar and water.
temperature	The temperature in the desert was over 40 degrees. The thermometer gave an accurate measure of the temperature of the thermometer room.

vertebrate About 4% of animal species are vertebrates.

vessel Blood vessels are part of the circulatory system.