

Handwriting sheet: Precursive Arrow worksheet

Word list: are - longer words

In this list, you'll explore longer words that use the letters are to spell the /air/ sound. These words follow the same pattern as the shorter ones but can be a bit more challenging. Examples include aware, prepare, and nightmare. Whether you're aware of something, preparing for an exam, or recalling a bad nightmare, these words are useful in both writing and speech.

With a little practice, you'll be spelling them with confidence!
