

Spelling list: NAPLAN Challenging Words - List #7 / 10

adrenaline	The adrenaline raced through him as soon as he realised this was not a drill.
basically	At the simplest or most fundamental level.
camouflage	It was hard to see the chameleon as he was able to camouflage himself against his background.
controversial	The referee's decision was controversial .
disadvantageously	They had always compared the outback disadvantageously with the city.
exaggerate	An angler will sometimes exaggerate the size of fish he has caught.
guarantee	My new laptop has a three year guarantee .
intrigue	The court heard a dramatic story of intrigue .
liquefy	If you don't move the ice cream out of the sun quickly it will liquefy .
mischievous	He is a mischievous puppy.
obscure	He enjoyed reading obscure poetry.
pessimistic	If you are pessimistic , you always expect the worst to happen.
rancour	Rancour means hate or bitterness.
sabotage	If you are not careful you can still make a few financial blunders that can sabotage your savings efforts.
strategically	She timed her entrance strategically so that most of the guests watched her entrance to the ballroom.
unconscious	She knelt beside her unconscious friend.
wondrous	The gymnast's wondrous acrobatic feats won her the Olympic gold medal.