Spelling list: Stage 3 A Spelling List Term 2 Week 2 miserable I can not believe what a miserable day we had.

species Most parrot species are able to mimic human words.

I was asked to provide two references when I applied for the management role.

applied

satisfied I am very satisfied with your work.

worried Fraught means upset and worried.

falsified The manager falsified the documents.

qualified Are you qualified for this job?

frequently Frequently, the teacher reminded the children to revise.

gradually The temperature gradually went up as the day went on.

occasionally When I drive I occasionally use an atlas.

accidentally I accidentally dropped the plate.

When they had come to the edge of the forest it was noticeably growing noticeably light over the field.

comfortably Are you sitting comfortably?

Jenny was understandably upset when she heard that England were out of understandably the Cup Final.

reasonably Jack completed the task reasonably well.

dependably He followed behind her dependably, her most loyal and reliable servant.

temperamental All I know is that he's temperamental, and you'd better stay away from him.

Temporary is the opposite of permanent.

therapeutic I use yoga as a therapeutic tool to help me relieve stress.

tournament The tennis tournament was going to be broadcast worldwide.