

Spelling list: Spellings w.c. 11.5.2020

We have some more homophones this week. Remember, a homophone is a word that sounds the same, but means something different and is spelt differently. You need to look up the meaning of each word and make sure that you understand which meaning goes with which spelling.

wary	He was circumspect in his business decisions: wary and unwilling to take risks.
weary	They were weary from their travels.
farther	It's farther away.
father	My father is called Andrew.
morning	It was a spring morning and the air was cool.
mourning	The country is in mourning for the loss of the Queen.
principal	A principal is the educator who has executive authority for a school.
principle	It is my principle to behave honestly.
prophet	The prophet said a holy man would come.
profit	The amount of sales will determine the profits.
stationary	Our train was stationary for over an hour.
stationery	I buy all the stationery for our office.
ascent	We continued our ascent of the mountain.
assent	He gave a strong nod of assent .