

Spelling list: -fer suffixes

infer	I tried to infer what the story's theme was.
inferred	The reason why she was cross, was inferred by the words she spoke.
inferring	As you are inferring from my accent I came from Australia.
inference	An inference is a logical deduction.
transfer	I can transfer my money into a bank account.
transferring	They were transferring his bag from one aeroplane to another.
transferred	The shop assistant had been transferred from a different branch.
transferable	My money is transferable from one bank account to another.
defer	I will defer my payment for the school trip until after the holiday.
deferred	She deferred her decision to go to the park, until after she had found out what her friend was doing.