

Spelling list: Short Stories - The Hitchhiker by Roald Dahl

haymaking	We saw the farmers haymaking; they were cutting the grass and letting it dry to make hay for the cattle.
seldom	It seldom rains in the desert.
enormous	Elephants are enormous .
ratty	The hitchhiker had ratty eyes because they were small and black with the characteristics of a rat.
mugs	Mugs are people who are easily tricked and taken advantage of.
crummy	Dad always tells really crummy jokes, nobody ever laughs at them.
jammed	The door wouldn't open because the suitcase was jammed behind it.
loomed	As we drove closer a huge island loomed through the mist.
lamely	'I don't know who ate the chocolates,' she answered lamely .
breeches	Breeches are old fashioned trousers that hang just below the knee, usually tucked into long boots.
pickpocket	He was certain a pickpocket had stolen the wallet from his trouser pocket.
hefty	That's a pretty hefty book bag for a tiny person like you.