

Spelling list: Practise for adding the suffixes -ing, -ed, -s, -er, -est, -y, -en. Words ending in -e

Practice examples, Letters and Sounds, Phase Six. All the base words need changes made before the suffixes are added.

like	I don't like the way you said that.
ride	The kids enjoyed the sleigh ride .
tame	I would like to tame the fierce lion.
bone	My dog likes to bury bones.
bake	Which cakes should we bake today?
hike	He likes to hike in the woods because it's peaceful.
fine	The table was laid with fine silverware.
wave	Would you like to wave a magic wand?
rule	England spent 64 years under Queen Victoria's rule .
rude	The shop assistant was unhelpful and rude .
liking	Liking vegetables is good for your health.
rider	The horse rider jumped the fence.
tamest	The camel was the tamest animal in the zoo.
boney	My gran has very boney hands.
baked	I baked six loaves yesterday.
hiking	The family was very keen on hiking .
finest	The gold necklace was her finest accessory.
waved	He waved his arms frantically.

ruler                      The king was a very strict ruler of the country.

rudest                     John was the rudest boy in the whole class.