

Spelling list: Practise for adding the suffixes -ing, -ed, -ful, -ly, -est, -er, -ment, -ness, -en - part 1

Practice examples, Letters and Sounds, Phase Six. Some of the base words need to be changed before the suffixes are added but some do not. Remember: a final e in the base word may or may not need to be dropped.

spite	We went for a walk in spite of the rain.
rude	Is it rude to chew gum in church?
white	We've painted the ceiling white .
bite	Jane had a big bite of the plum pie.
lame	The farmer saw that the lamb was lame .
safe	My shed will be safe with this padlock on the door.
amuse	My best friend never ceases to amuse me.
rise	I like to rise at six every morning.
time	In my leisure time I enjoy swimming.
use	I'll use this glue to fix my model.
spiteful	Andrew was a spiteful man.
rudely	Behaving rudely in public is antisocial.
whiter	The linen is whiter when washed with hot water.
biting	A tick is a small biting insect.
lameness	He did the marathon despite his lameness .
safely	Cross the road safely when the traffic stops.
amusement	We spent six hours playing at the amusement park.
rising	They were trapped by the rising flood water.

timed

Her run towards the goal was timed perfectly.

useful

A telephone is a very useful device.