

Spelling list: Exploring science 8Da extinct	A species that no longer exists are said to be extinct .

fossil	A fossil is the remains of a dead animal or plant that became trapped in layers of sediment and turned into rock.
adapted	When something has certain features to do a particular function it has adapted .
environmental	Physical environmental factors, like temperature, help to create the environment of a habitat.
kingdom	The two biggest are the plant kingdom and the animal kingdom .
classified	Organisms are classified into their groups according to their characteristics.
vertebrates	Vertebrates are animals with a backbone.
cuticle	The cuticle is the layer of cells on leaves that is waterproof.
xylem	The tissue found in plants responsible for transporting minerals and water throughout the plant is called xylem .
spores	Spores are very small part of a plant that can grow into a new plant.
photosynthesis	Photosynthesis is a process that plants use to make their own food.
habitat	Habitat is the natural home of plants and animals.