

Spelling list: Characters from An Inspector Calls

An Inspector Calls by J.B. Priestley is a three-act play set in early 20th-century England. The mysterious Inspector Goole arrives at the Birling family home to interrogate them about their involvement in a young woman's death. As the truth unravels, the play explores themes of responsibility, social inequality, and the consequences of one's actions.

Arthur	Arthur Birling is the husband of Sybil and father to Sheila and Eric.
Birling	Arthur Birling is a man in his mid-fifties.
Gerald	Gerald Croft is engaged to Sheila Birling.
Croft	Gerald Croft works for his father's company, 'Croft's Limited'.
Sheila	Arthur Birling is the husband of Sybil and father to Sheila and Eric.
Sybil	Arthur Birling is the husband of Sybil and father to Sheila and Eric.
Eric	Eric Birling is Arthur's son who also works for Birling and Company.
Inspector	The school inspector sat at the back of the class.
Goole	Inspector Goole wears a plain dark suit.
Edna	Edna is the parlour maid.
Eva	Eva Smith supposedly worked at Birling and Company.
Smith	Ms. Smith was unaware of the spider above her head.