

Spelling list: Characters in DNA

DNA by Dennis Kelly is a gripping and darkly comic play that delves into the moral and psychological consequences of a group of teenagers' actions. After witnessing a tragic incident, they form a pact to cover up the truth. As guilt and fear consume them, their loyalty is tested, and the play raises questions about identity, responsibility, and the lengths people will go to protect themselves.

Mark	Mark carved his name on the tree.
Jan	Jan has to take an exam to get the job.
Leah	Leah was visibly exhausted after all her hard work.
Phil	Phil turned his backyard into a market garden.
John	John likes ketchup on his food.
Cathy	Cathy and her gang terrorise the school.
Richard	Justifiable anger led Richard to confront his brother about the issue.
Brian	Brian had a breakthrough when he started to use spelling rules to help him.