

Spelling list: Characters in DNA

DNA by Dennis Kelly is a gripping and darkly comic play that delves into the moral and psychological consequences of a group of teenagers' actions. After witnessing a tragic incident, they form a pact to cover up the truth. As guilt and fear consume them, their loyalty is tested, and the play raises questions about identity, responsibility, and the lengths people will go to protect themselves.

Mark	Mark and Jan appear as a pair throughout the play.
Jan	Mark and Jan have questionable morals.
Leah	Leah acts as narrator figure in the play.
Phil	Phil is often seen eating throughout the play.
John	John Tate is new to the school and seems a bully.
Cathy	Cathy and her gang terrorise the school.
Richard	Richard acts very confident but is really quite insecure.
Brian	Brian is sensitive and often bossed around by the others.
Adam	Adam is a victim of the group's horrible bullying.