

Spelling list: Much Ado About Nothing 2

slander	Who has dared to slander me so cruelly?" cried the girl.
cynical	If you are cynical , it means that you always believe the worst of people. You do not believe that people are ever honest.
hyperbolic	The politician s hyperbolic speeches are not based on fact.
misanthropic	His father was a misanthropic but successful businessman.
chaste	Girls were expected to remain chaste until marriage.
bawdy	She did not mean this as a bawdy joke.
animosity	During the match, the animosity between the two wrestlers was obvious.
cuckold	Although no one called him a cuckold to his face, everyone in the small town knew of his wife s affair.
assertive	The woman was being very assertive .
villain	The film's hero killed the villain .