

Spelling list: exception to v-e rule (ive)

give	I'll give you a ride home.
live	I want to live in New York.
massive	That footballer is paid a massive amount of money.
olive	An olive is one-seeded fruit that is usually pickled and used as a relish.
active	My grandpa is very active despite his age.
passive	The dog was very passive .
captive	Keeping wild animals captive is cruel.
disruptive
expensive	My very expensive new saucepan was advertised as being non-stick.
impressive	It was impressive how well they worked on their spellings.
extensive	There was extensive flooding after the rain.
attentive	The teacher advised her students to be more attentive .
benches	There are five benches in my local park.
scratching	The cat was scratching the tree trunk to practise using her claws!