

Spelling list: Tier 2 Words (compiled - conduct)

Tier 2 words are less common than high frequency (Tier 1) words. They are often integral to the comprehension of exam questions or core subject knowledge.

compiled	If you have compiled something, it means you have put it together.
complement	If two things or people complement each other, it means they go well together.
complex	If something is complex , it means it is complicated.
comply	If you comply with something, it means you follow its rules.
component	A component is a part of something.
compose	If you compose a piece of music or a letter, it means you write it.
compound	A compound is a whole formed by a union of two or more elements or parts.
comprehensive	If something is comprehensive it includes all of the aspects of something.
comprise	Comprise means made up of.
compute	If you compute something, it means you calculate it.
computer	A computer is a machine that stores and processes data.
conceived	If something has been conceived , it means it has been thought of.
concentrate	If you concentrate on something, it means you direct all your attention to it.
concentration	Concentration is the process of giving something your complete attention.
concept	A concept is an abstract idea.
conclusion	A conclusion is the end of something or a summing up of an idea.
concurrent	If two things are concurrent , it means they are occurring at the same time.
conduct	If you conduct something, it means you manage or control it.

