

Spelling list: Tier 2 Words (confer - constraints)

Tier 2 words are less common than high frequency (Tier 1) words. They are often integral to the comprehension of exam questions or core subject knowledge.

confer	If you confer with someone, it means you discuss something with them.
conference	A conference is a prearranged meeting for consultation, exchange of information, or discussion.
confident	If you are confident , it means you are sure of yourself.
confined	If something is confined , it means it is not free to move about.
confirmed	If something has been confirmed , it means it has been made firm or established as true.
conflict	A conflict is an open clash between two opposing groups or individuals.
conformity	Conformity is acting in accordance with certain accepted standards.
consent	Consent means permission to do something.
consequences	Consequences are the results or outcomes of an event or action.
consequent	Consequent describes something that is following or a result of something else.
considerable	Considerable means large in number or amount.
consist	Consist means made up of.
consistent	If something is consistent , it means it behaves in the same way over time.
constant	If something is constant , it means it is unvarying in nature.
constitute	Constitute means made up of or composed from.
constitutional	If something is constitutional , it means it is operating under the political principles of a government.

constraints

The constraints on something are the things that are holding it back.