Spelling list: Tier 2 Words (advocate - antonym)

Tier 2 words are less common than high frequency (Tier 1) words. They are often integral to the comprehension of exam questions or core subject knowledge.
advocate affect aggregate aggressive
agree
aid albeit allocation
alter
alternative altitude
ambiguous
amendment analogous analyse

If you advocate for an idea, it means you speak, plead, or argue in favour of it.

If you affect something, it means you make a difference to it.

An aggregate is a whole amount that is made up lots of different parts gathered together.

If you are aggressive, it means you are ready or eager to fight.
If you agree with someone about something, it means you have the same opinion as them.

If you aid someone, it means you help or assist them.

Albeit means although.

An allocation is a share of something set aside for a specific purpose.

If you alter something, it means you change it.

An alternative is one of a number of things from which only one can be chosen.

Altitude is the height of something above sea level.

If something is ambiguous, it means it is open to more than one interpretation.

An amendment is a change made to a document to correct or add to it.

If two things are analogous, it means they are similar in some respects.
If you analyse something, it means you consider it in detail to discover its essential features or meaning.
analysis annual If something is annual, it means it occurs once a year. antagonist anticipated
antonym
An analysis is a detailed examination of something.

An antagonist is the person in a story who opposes the hero.

If something is anticipated, it means it is looked forward to.

An antonym is a word that is opposite in meaning to another word, e.g. good is an antonym for bad.

