Spelling list: Tier 2 Words (impressive - inhibition)

Tier 2 words are less common than high frequency (Tier 1) words. They are often integral to the comprehension of exam questions or core subject knowledge.

impressive If something is impressive, it means it is grand or spectacular.

incentive An incentive motivates you to do something.

incidence is the frequency with which something occurs.

If you have an inclination towards something, it means you favour it over inclination other things.

income Your income is the money you make.

incompatible If two things are incompatible, it means they do not work well together.

If something has been incorporated, it means it has been combined into incorporated something else.

If you are independent, it means you are free from external control and independent constraint.

An index is an alphabetical listing of names and topics along with the page index numbers on which they are discussed.

indicate If you indicate something, it means you signal it is there.

If something is individual, it means it is separate and distinct from others of individual the same kind.

induced If something is induced, it means it is brought about.

industrious If someone is industrious, it means they are hardworking.

If something happens inevitably, it means it happened in the only way it ever could have occurred.

inferred If something is inferred, it means it is deduced or reasoned using logic.

inevitably

 Infrastructure
 In frastructure is the basic structure or features of a system or organisation.

 Inherent
 If something is inherent, it means it is permanent, essential, or characteristic.

 Inhibit
 If you inhibit something, it means you limit or stop it.

 An inhibition is a feeling that makes you self conscious and stops you feeling relaxed.