

Spelling list: Tier 2 Words (intercept - items)

Tier 2 words are less common than high frequency (Tier 1) words. They are often integral to the comprehension of exam questions or core subject knowledge.

intercept	If you intercept something, it means you seize it on its way to its intended destination.
intermediate	If something is intermediate , it means it falls in between two extremes.
internal	If something is internal , it means it occurs on the inside.
interpret	If you interpret something, it means you work out and explain its meaning.
interpretation	An interpretation is the act of explaining the meaning or results of something.
interval	An interval is a definite length of time marked off by two instants.
intervention	An intervention is the act of getting involved with something in order to alter or hinder it.
intrinsic	Intrinsic means belonging to a thing by its very nature.
invest	If you invest in something, it means you put time, money, or energy into it with the expectation of receiving a share of its success or profits.
investigate	If you investigate something, it means you make formal inquiries in order to discover the truth about it.
investigation	An investigation is a formal inquiry.
investment	An investment is the laying out of money or capital in an enterprise with the expectation of profit.
invoked	If something has been invoked , it means it has been summoned into action.
involve	If you involve someone in something, it means you engage them as a participant.

isolated	If you feel isolated , it means you feel cut off or left behind.
issue	An issue is an important question that is in dispute and must be settled.
items	Items are individual units or things that can be specified separately.