

Spelling list: Tier 2 Words (data - design)

Tier 2 words are less common than high frequency (Tier 1) words. They are often integral to the comprehension of exam questions or core subject knowledge.

data	Data is a collection of facts from which conclusions may be drawn.
debate	A debate is a discussion in which the reasons for and against a proposition are put forward.
decades	Decades are periods of ten years.
decline	If you decline something, it means you refuse it.
dedicate	If you dedicate yourself to something or someone, it means you devote all your energy to it.
deduce	If you deduce something, it means you work it out through reasoning.
define	If you define a word, it means you explain what it means.
definite	If something is definite , it means it is known for certain.
definition	If you tell someone the definition of a word, it means you tell them what that word means.
demonstrate	If you demonstrate something to someone, it means you show them how to do it.
denote	Denote means to be a sign or indication of.
deny	If you deny something, it means you declare it as untrue.
depression	Depression is a mental state characterised by feelings of sadness, low spirits, and inadequacy.
deprive	If you deprive someone of something, it means you stop them from having it.
derive	If you derive something, it means you work it out through reasoning.

design

A design is a sketch, outline, or plan for something.