

Spelling list: Tier 2 Words (economic - equation)

Tier 2 words are less common than high frequency (Tier 1) words. They are often integral to the comprehension of exam questions or core subject knowledge.

economic	Economic means related to the system of production and management of material wealth.
economy	The economy is the system of production, distribution, and consumption of resources.
edition	An edition is a specific version of a publication.
element	An element is an abstract part of something.
eliminate	If you eliminate something, it means you get rid of it.
emerge	If you emerge , it means you come out into view.
emphasis	If you give emphasis to something, it means you give it special importance or significance.
empirical	If something is empirical , it means it was derived from experiment and observation rather than theory.
enable	If you enable something, it means you make it capable of doing a particular task.
encountered	If you encountered something, it means you unexpectedly met with or faced it.
energy	Energy is the strength required to do or sustain something.
enforce	If you enforce a rule, you make sure that it is followed.
enforcement	Enforcement is the act of making sure a rule or a law is followed.
enhanced	If something has been enhanced , it means it has increased or intensified in value.

enormous	If something is enormous , it means it is very large.
ensure	If you ensure something will happen, it means you make sure of it.
entity	An entity is something that has its own distinct existence.
environment	The environment is the totality of our surrounding conditions.
equate	If you equate something to something else, it means you consider it similar or equal.
equation	An equation is a mathematical statement that two expressions are equal.