

Spelling list: Tier 2 Words (anxious - assurance)

Tier 2 words are less common than high frequency (Tier 1) words. They are often integral to the comprehension of exam questions or core subject knowledge.

| | |
|--------------|--|
| anxious | If you are anxious , it means you are feeling or showing worry or unease. |
| apparent | If something is apparent , it means it is clear to see and understand. |
| appendix | An appendix is a collection of extra information and materials at the end of a book. |
| appreciation | Appreciation is the recognition of the good things about someone or something. |
| approach | An approach is the idea or action you intend to use to deal with a problem or situation. |
| appropriate | If something is appropriate , it means it is suitable for a particular person, place, or condition. |
| approximate | If something is approximate , it means it is close or similar but not necessarily exact. |
| arbitrary | If something is arbitrary , it means it is random or based on individual preference. |
| area | An area is a subject of study. |
| arrive | If you arrive somewhere, it means you reach there after travelling. |
| aspects | Aspects are the distinct features or elements of something. |
| assembly | An assembly is a group of people who are gathered together for a common purpose. |
| assess | If you assess something, it means you evaluate its nature, quality, or ability. |
| assessment | An assessment is a way of testing someone's ability. |

| | |
|------------|---|
| assign | If you assign a job to someone, it means you make them responsible for its completion. |
| assistance | If you give someone assistance , it means you help them by sharing their work. |
| assume | If you assume something, it means you accept it without verification or proof. |
| assurance | An assurance is a statement intended to inspire confidence. |