

Spelling list: Past tense - words ending -ered

The past tense of verbs ending -er , becoming -ered.

wondered	The lottery winner wondered what she would do with all the money she had just won.
wandered	I wandered through the empty streets.
battered	The bread will be battered .
flattered	The vain princess was very flattered by all the attention she received.
whispered	'It's bliss to be swimming in these tranquil waters on this beautiful, tropical island', whispered Marnie.
remembered	Have you remembered your PE kit?
hammered	The rain hammered on the roofs of the houses.
answered	The child answered the questions honestly.
bothered	Jake did not like to be bothered by phone calls whilst he was reading.
numbered	The teacher numbered the questions from one to ten.