

Spelling list: Oak - BISP - Week 2

dismissive	The boy created a fabulous excuse, but his mother made a dismissive gesture.
presume	Do not presume that I will agree with all you decide.
desolate	The street was desolate .
foreseeable	In the foreseeable future.
content	The contents of the book were listed at the front.
exasperation	Finding a long queue, she sighed in exasperation .
indicate	Use a comma to indicate pauses between parts of a sentence.
plaque	A wall plaque shows where the famous explorer lived.
conviction	She stated her beliefs with conviction .
lacquer	The Japanese table was covered in black and gold lacquer .
vexation	He watched the sandcastle collapse in vexation .
anticipated	The anticipated telecast of the final was delayed.
inhospitable	The tundra is very inhospitable .
contemptuous	She gave her father a contemptuous look.
disdainful	She gave the shabby dog a disdainful glance.
scathing	The review for the theatre show was scathing .
disparaging	After the terrible performance, he made a series of disparaging comments,.
chagrin	To her chagrin , she found she had finished last.