

Spelling list: Level 6 Revision

conceited	A conceited man thinks he's the best.
endeavoured	I endeavoured to get all of my Irish verbs correct in my weekly test.
received	The band received stupendous applause.
whistled	The wind whistled through the trees.
whistled	The wind whistled through the trees.
vacancies	Job vacancies are listed in the paper.
hungriness	The hungriness was unbearable before lunch.
nastiness	The nastiness of some players spoiled the game.
physiology	Physiology is the organic processes or functions in an organism.
consequently	We will be writing explanations this week, consequently this word will be a good one to learn.
poetic	He wrote poetic songs.
autobiography	The man read the autobiography .
bilingual	His friend was bilingual .
mischievous	Puck is a mischievous fairy.
conscience	My conscience is completely clear.
achieve	He wanted to achieve good grades in school.
prescription	We collected our prescription from the pharmacist.