Spelling list: Level 6 Revision

conceited A conceited man thinks he's the best.

endeavoured I endeavoured to get all of my Irish verbs correct in my weekly test.

received The band received stupendous applause.

whistled The wind whistled through the trees.

whistled The wind whistled through the trees.

vacancies Job vacancies are listed in the paper.

hungriness The hungriness was unbearable before lunch.

nastiness The nastiness of some players spoiled the game.

physiology Physiology is the organic processes or functions in an organism.

We will be writing explanations this week, consequently this word will be a good one to learn.

poetic He wrote poetic songs.

consequently

autobiography The man read the autobiography.

bilingual His friend was bilingual.

mischievous Puck is a mischievous fairy.

conscience My conscience is completely clear.

achieve He wanted to achieve good grades in school.

prescription We collected our prescription from the pharmacist.