

Spelling list: GCSE Biology: Cells and Cell Transport 2

Key words for GCSE Biology.

feature	A feature is an important or unusual characteristic of something.
function	Function is another word for job.
eukaryotic	Eukaryotic cells are plant and animal cells with a nucleus.
prokaryotic	Cells without a nucleus or a membrane bound organelle are called prokaryotic cells.
nucleus	The nucleus controls what a cell does.
cell	The cell membrane is a partially permeable barrier which controls what goes in and out of the cell .
membrane	The cell membrane is a partially permeable barrier which controls what goes in and out of the cell.
partially	Partially means only a part.
permeable	If something is permeable , it allows things to pass through it.
absorb	If you absorb something, it means you soak it up.
cytoplasm	Cytoplasm is where chemical reactions happen in a cell.
mitochondria	In a cell, aerobic respiration happens in the mitochondria .
chloroplasts	In plant cells, chloroplasts contain chlorophyll which absorb light for photosynthesis.
cell	The cell wall is made of cellulose and provides support to the plant cell .
wall	The cell wall is made of cellulose and provides support to the plant cell.