

Spelling list: 20 English Words from Greek Mythology

atlas	An atlas is a collection of maps in book form.
chaos	Chaos is a state of extreme confusion and disorder.
chronological	Chronological means relating to or arranged according to temporal order.
echo	An echo is the repetition of a sound resulting from reflection of the sound waves.
halcyon	Halcyon mean idyllically calm and peaceful.
hypnosis	Hypnosis is a state that resembles sleep but that is induced by suggestion.
iridescent	Iridescent means varying in colour when seen in different lights or from different angles.
laconic	Laconic means brief and to the point.
lethargy	Lethargy is a state of comatose torpor.
lycanthrope	A lycanthrope is a monster able to change appearance from human to wolf and back again.
mentor	A mentor is a wise and trusted guide and advisor.
morphine	Morphine is an alkaloid narcotic drug extracted from opium.
mnemonic	A mnemonic is a device (such as a rhyme or acronym) used to aid recall.
muse	A muse is the source of an artist's inspiration.
narcissism	Narcissism is an exceptional interest in and admiration for yourself.
nemesis	A nemesis is something that causes misery or death.
panic	Panic is an overwhelming feeling of fear and anxiety.
	Tantalise means torment or tease someone with something that is tantalise

unobtainable.

typhoon

A typhoon is a tropical cyclone occurring in the western Pacific or Indian oceans.

zeal

Zeal is a feeling of strong eagerness .