Spelling list: GCSE Maths: Data 1

Key words for GCSE Maths

average	There are three types of average : mean, median, and mode.
box	A box plot is a visual way of representing the median and upper and lower quartiles of a data set.
plot	A box plot is a visual way of representing the median and upper and lower quartiles of a data set.
categorical	Data that is grouped by common traits is called categorical data.
certain	If the probability of something is certain , it will definitely happen.
chance	Chance refers to how probable something is to happen.
continuous	Continuous data is quantitative and can be measured.
correlation	The relationship between two variables is known as the correlation .
cumulative	The running total of frequencies is known as the cumulative frequency.
frequency	The running total of frequencies is known as the cumulative frequency .
discrete	Discrete data is data that can be counted.
experiment	An experiment is a test conducted in order to work out what will happen in a specific circumstance.
fair	If something is fair , it means it is not biased.
frequency	The frequency of something is how often it happens.
density	Frequency density is represented on a histogram.