Spelling list: GCSE Maths: Data 2

Key words for GCSE Maths

histogram	A histogram shows the frequency of data in bars.
impossible	If something is impossible , it will definitely not happen.
independent	If something is independent , it means it does not rely on or affect something else.
interpret	If you interpret data, it means you find conclusions from it.
interquartile	The interquartile range is the difference between the upper and lower quartiles.
range	The interquartile range is the difference between the upper and lower quartiles.
mean	The mean is calculated by adding up the values and dividing by the number of values.
median	The median is the middle point of a data range.
modal	The modal group is the group with the highest frequency.
mode	The mode is the most frequently occurring value.
mutually	If two events are mutually exclusive, it means they can't happen at the same time.
exclusive	If two events are mutually exclusive , it means they can't happen at the same time.
outcome	The outcome is the result of an experiment.
outlier	An outlier is a value that doesn't fit the expected pattern.