

Spelling list: GCSE Sociology: Family 1

Key words for GCSE Sociology function	Function is another word for job or purpose.

primary	Primary socialisation is when a child under five learns basic skills, values, and norms.
socialisation	Primary socialisation is when a child under five learns basic skills, values, and norms.
nuclear	A nuclear family consists of parents and their children.
family	A nuclear family consists of parents and their children.
extended	An extended family includes other relatives like cousins, grandparents, and aunts and uncles.
lone-parent	A lone-parent family consists of a single parent and their children.
reconstituted	In a reconstituted family, one or both parents might have children from a previous relationship.
diversity	Family diversity is the idea that there are lots of different types of family.
cohabitation	Cohabitation is the act of living with a partner without getting married or having a civil partnership first.
conjugal	A conjugal relationship is a relationship between a married couple, civil partners, or a cohabiting couple.
relationship	A conjugal relationship is a relationship between a married couple, civil partners, or a cohabiting couple.
domestic	The way in which household chores are distributed within a family is known as domestic division of labour.
division	The way in which household chores are distributed within a family is known as domestic division of labour.

labour

The way in which household chores are distributed within a family is known as domestic division of labour .