

Spelling list: GCSE Sociology: Family 3

Key words for GCSE Sociology.

kibbutz	A kibbutz is a type of Israeli settlement in which members live as a community.
conventional	The term conventional family describes a family made up of two parents and their children.
canalisation	Canalisation is the influencing of children by giving them gender-specific toys.
secularisation	Secularisation describes movement away from religion. principle	The principle of stratified diffusion suggests that social change happens at the top and moves down.
stratified	The principle of stratified diffusion suggests that social change happens at the top and moves down.
diffusion	The principle of stratified diffusion suggests that social change happens at the top and moves down.
dysfunctional	A dysfunctional family is a family that does not work.
monogamy	Monogamy describes being in only one relationship or marriage at a time.
kinship	Kinship networks are the relationships between family members.
networks	Kinship networks are the relationships between family members.
pre-industrial	If something is pre-industrial , it means it is from before the mass use of machinery.
contemporary	Contemporary means happening in the present time.
separate	The separate spheres are the private world of the home and the public world of work.

spheres	The separate spheres are the private world of the home and the public world of work.
matriarchal	In matriarchal societies, women hold advantages and power over men.