

Spelling list: GCSE Design and Technology 3

Key words for GCSE Design and Technology.

paper	Paper is used for writing, drawing and printing on.
board	Paper weighing more than 170gsm is board .
timber	Timber is wood prepared for use in building.
manufactured	Manufactured boards are large man-made sheets of recycled wood.
boards	Manufactured boards are large man-made sheets of recycled wood.
non-ferrous	Non-ferrous metals do not contain a significant amount of iron.
metals	Ferrous metals are refined into bars, sheets, and other forms.
polymers	Polymers are constructed from a large number monomers bonded together.
fibres	Fibres are threads from which textiles can be formed.
smart	Smart materials react to changes in their environment.
materials	Smart materials react to changes in their environment.
composite	Composite materials are made up of two or more different materials.
new	New technologies offer improvements over established technologies.
technologies	New technologies offer improvements over established technologies .
hardwood	Hardwood is natural timber from deciduous trees.
softwood	Softwood is natural timber from coniferous trees.