

Spelling list: GCSE English Literature: Plays 1

GCSE English Literature

script	The written text of a play, film, or broadcast is called a script .
playwright	A playwright is someone who writes plays.
Shakespeare	Shakespeare was an English playwright and poet.
act	An act is a section of a play.
scene	A scene is an unit of action within a play.
character	A character is a fictional person or being in a story.
audience	The people watching a show or reading a text are called the audience .
theatre	A theatre is a building in which plays are performed.
costume	A costume is the clothes an actor wears in a production.
set	Set refers to the scenery and furniture in a play and their position on stage.
stage	Stage directions include entries, exits, and movement.
directions	Stage directions include entries, exits, and movement.
dialogue	Dialogue is a conversational exchange.
narrator	A narrator tells the story in a play.
auditorium	The audience sits in the auditorium .
backstage	Backstage is the area behind the stage.
emphasis	If you put emphasis on something, it means you give it importance.
enter	Enter indicates a character's entrance onto the stage.
exit	Exit indicates a character's exit from the stage.