

Spelling list: GCSE English Literature: Form and Structure 1

Key words for GCSE English Literature.

focus	The focus of a text is its main purpose or interest.
sentence	Sentence structure is the order of elements in a sentence .
structure	Sentence structure is the order of elements in a sentence.
form	Sentence form refers to the specific function of a sentence.
point	A point of view is someone's perspective.
view	A point of view is someone's perspective.
context	The context is the setting and circumstance of an event.
fragmented	Fragmented means broken or split into different parts.
pace	Pace is the speed at which a story is told.
footnote	A footnote appears at the bottom of a text to add information.
suspense	Suspense is the building of tension in a plot.
overview	An overview is a summary.
surprise	A surprise is an unexpected event.
tragedy	A tragedy is a devastating event.
viewpoint	A viewpoint is someone's perspective on something.
opening	The opening is the beginning of a narrative.
setting	The setting is where the events in a novel or play are taking place.
character	A character is a fictional person or being in a story.
dialogue	Dialogue is a conversational exchange.

