

Spelling list: GCSE English Language: Language Features 3

Key words for GCSE English Language.

implies	If a text implies something, it suggests it without outright saying it.
context	The context is the setting and circumstance of an event.
method	A method is a specific way of doing something.
narrative	A written or spoken story is a narrative .
effective	If something is effective , it means it is successful at producing its intended result.
identify	If you identify something, it means you establish what it is.
judicious	To be judicious is to show good sense and judgment.
reference	If you reference something, it means you mention it.
quotation	A quotation is the direct use of a word, phrase, or sentence from another source.
explain	If you explain something, it means you give reasons as to why it happens.
comment	A comment is a brief written or spoken remark about something.
influence	Influence is the power to affect and change someone or something.
range	A range is a variety of things from the same general group.
convey	If you convey something, it means you communicate it..
pathetic	Pathetic fallacy is when a writer gives human feelings to something non-human in order to create an effect.
fallacy	Pathetic fallacy is when a writer gives human feelings to something non-human in order to create an effect.

symbolism	Symbolism is when a word, phrase, or image stands for an idea or theme.
foreshadow	To foreshadow is to give a clues or hints about a future event.
pun	A pun is a humorous play on words that suggests multiple meanings behind an idea.