

Spelling list: GCSE English Language: Speaking and Listening 1

Key words for GCSE English Language.

speech	A formal address delivered to an audience is called a speech .
monologue	A monologue is a long speech delivered by a character.
interview	An interview is a conversation where one person asks questions and the other responds.
opinion	An opinion is a belief or view held by the someone.
topic	A topic is a matter that's explored in a text.
active	Active listening is when you are totally engaged in listening.
listening	Active listening is when you are totally engaged in listening .
presentation	A presentation is a talk where something is explained to the audience.
formal	If something is formal , it means it appropriate for official settings and circumstances.
perspective	Your perspective is the way you look at something and what you think about it.
debate	A debate is a formal discussion on a matter in which ideas are shared and challenged.
data	Data refers to information and statistics collected for analysis.
clarification	If you seek clarification , it means you are asking for something to be made clearer.