

Spelling list: GCSE English Language: Form and Structure 1

Key words for GCSE English Language.

perspective	Your perspective is the way you look at something and what you think about it.
setting	The setting is where the events in a novel or play are taking place.
point	A point of view is someone's perspective.
view	A point of view is someone's perspective.
character	A character is a fictional person or being in a story.
sentence	Sentence form refers to the specific function of a sentence .
form	Sentence form refers to the specific function of a sentence.
focus	The focus of a text is its main purpose or interest.
genre	Genre is the style or category a work falls into.
inform	If you inform someone of something, it means you tell them about it.
explain	If you explain something, it means you give reasons as to why it happens.
imagine	If you imagine , it means you form a mental image of something.
explore	If you explore something, it means you investigate or study it.
entertain	To entertain someone is to engage or amuse them.
review	A review is a critical appraisal of a work.
comment	A comment is a brief written or spoken remark about something.