

Spelling list: Crime, court

A list of words for English spelling and vocabulary help and learning. For further help, teaching and lessons about spelling please try our spelling course.

administrative	If something is administrative , it is related to or responsible for administration.
court	A court is a tribunal that is presided over by a magistrate or by one or more judges who administer justice according to the laws.
attorney	An attorney is a professional person authorized to practice law.
civil	If something is civil it is of or occurring within the state or between or among citizens of the state.
constitutional	If something is constitutional it is sanctioned by or consistent with or operating under the law determining the fundamental political principles of a government.
criminal	A criminal is someone who has committed a crime.
judge	A judge is a public official authorized to decide questions brought before a court of justice.
jury	A jury is a body of citizens sworn to give a true verdict according to the evidence presented in a court of law.
lawyer	A lawyer is a professional person authorized to practice law.
provincial	If something is provincial it is of or associated with a particular province.
supreme	If something is supreme it is of greatest in status or authority or power.
	An appeal is a legal proceeding in which the appellant appeal

resorts to a higher court to obtain a review of a lower court decision and a reversal of the lower court's judgment or the granting of a new trial.