

Spelling list:

dryer

alright                    Are you feeling alright today?

firework                    Don't touch the firework!

alive                        She is alive and well.

tried                        He tried to escape from the cell.

delight                    Linda screamed with delight when she opened the present.

describe                    The poet used alliteration to describe the beautiful butterflies.

lightning                    That was a huge flash of lightning .

frightening                    The film was quite frightening .

butterfly                    A butterfly is an insect that typically has a long slender body and bright colourful wings.

pantomime                    I loved the pantomime but the screaming gave me a headache!