

Spelling list: Module 28: Il Bello

triumphal	The wolf gave a triumphal howl.
medieval	The town is a throwback to medieval times, an anachronism that has survived the passing years.
courage	I admire her courage .
building	Let's explore that old building .
official	Some officials embezzle money and property.
cathedral	Have you visited York's cathedral ?
whistle	The referee blew his whistle at the end of the game.
float	There was a bubble of soap floating through the kitchen.
muscle	He's pulled a muscle in his leg.
nostril	Blood trickled from his nostril .
relative	Uncle Bill is my closest relative .
parade	The Field Marshal led the parade .
strain	I have been under a lot of strain .
festival	Jack and Jill enjoyed the music festival .
oval	Dinner was served on a large oval plate.
carnival	There were various amusements at the carnival .
optimism	There was plenty of optimism about his chances.
prepared	Being well prepared can be very advantageous.
	The Bubonic plague raged through the village of Eyam, claiming at least 260 lives.

Village