

Spelling list: Words with doubled letters (SHAMS)

These words are examples of the doubling rule: when a word ends in a short vowel and one consonant we must double the consonant when adding a vowel suffix.

flapping            The bird was flapping its wings.

getting             He hated getting up in the morning.

runner              The runner went really fast in the race.

spotted             Last year, we spotted our first snowflake on Christmas Eve.

jogger              The jogger runs five miles a day.

funny                The clown was so funny!

snappy              He has a very snappy way of talking.

setting              The setting is where the events in a novel or play are taking place.

hidden              I have hidden my sweets from my brother.

trodden             I think you have trodden in something smelly.

dipped              He dipped the paintbrush into the paint.