

Spelling list: Root words with short vowels, ending in one consonant letter before doubling

Root words with short vowels, ending in one consonant letter before doubling and then adding the suffix.

hopping            The frog was hopping across the road.

bugged

fitter              My brother trains a lot so he can become fitter .

wettest

snappy            He has a very snappy way of talking.

buzzing            The crowd was buzzing with excitement.

buzzed             A wasp buzzed around my head.

running           Even though he was tired he kept running .

dripped            The tap dripped continuously.

swimmer           The buoyancy aid helped keep the weak swimmer afloat.

messy              This classroom is messy .

sitting             We were all sitting in the garden when it rained.