

Spelling list: Tricky Words Pt 1 (Fallibroome)

If you are looking for some really difficult words, this is the list for you!

|                |   |
|----------------|---|
| accommodate    | A hotel can accommodate many guests.               |
| assassin       | The assassin waited in the shadows.                |
| acknowledge    | I acknowledge your hard work this term.            |
| acquire        | Would you like to acquire a small fortune?         |
| aggravate      | If you scratch that bite you will aggravate it.    |
| appropriate    | Your behaviour hasn't been appropriate today.      |
| ballerina      | My wish is to be a graceful ballerina .            |
| because        | I had to run because I was late.                   |
| building       | Let's explore that old building .                  |
| business       | She hides a shrewd business acumen.                |
| conscious      | She was conscious of what she said to her mother.  |
| correspondence | Correspondence from fans arrived daily.            |
| colleagues     | I am very eager to work alongside new colleagues . |
| commemorate    | We will commemorate the occasion with a party.     |
| commission     | Mr Wickham received a commission into the army.    |
| committee      | The committee meet today.                          |
| compatible     | Cats and dogs are rarely compatible .              |
| comparative    | You were asked to write a comparative essay.       |
| connoisseur    | He is a chocolate connoisseur .                    |

corroborate

In this country the evidence of one child cannot corroborate the evidence of another child.